THE Liberty fair, Aug. 16, 17 and 18, will draw many people from this county who look forward to their yearly trips to the capital of Casey during fair time. A splendid premium list has been prepared and the prospects are that the biggest crowd ever seen in Liberty will be there during the fair next week. Better join the procession.

FIVE IN JAIL.—On Sunday evening, July 16, Cecil Crutchfield, the 16-year-old son of Mr. A. A. Crutchfield, was shot through the head and killed at a dance at the old cheese factory between Ottenheim and Kriger. A coroner's inquest was held and the verdict rendered was that Crutchfield came to his death by a pistol wound inflicted by an unknown person. A detective of Lexington was engaged to look up the guilty party and as a result James Carter, Jr., Dick Chandler, Elmore Siler and Misses Lena Staton and Ethel Delaney are now in jail awaiting their trial tomorrow, Wednesday morning. The writ on which they were all arrested was for conspiring and feloniously murdering young Cecil Crutchfield. All of the parties were at the dance, but none of them claim to know who fired the fatal shot. Miss Staton was working at the King Hotel, Crab Orchard, when the arrest was made and Miss Delaney was at her home in Lexington. The latter is a daughter of J. M. Delaney, formerly of the Highland section. She was brought here by Officer L. Y. Johnson.

MATRIMONIAL.

Ambrose Durham and Miss Maggie Lair were married at Yocum's schoolhouse on the 4th.

An announcement of extreme interest to the society people of this city, says the Somerset Journal, is that of the engagement of and approaching marriage of Miss Clara McCreary Herr and Dr. Robert Perkins Keene. The ceremony will be performed on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

Mr. Ernest Warren left Friday morning for Toledo, Ohio, where on next Tuesday evening he will be married to Miss Mary Stella Ballou, youngest daughter of Rev. Joseph Ballou, of Stanford, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John L. Duncan. Mr. and Mrs. Warren will spend several days on the lakes and arrive in Middlesborough shortly after the middle of August and make this city their home.—Middlesboro News.

The Somerset baseball club defeated the Danville nine at Somerset Saturday. The first game by a score of 11 to 4 and the second by 25 to 12. That was the inauguration of the new ball grounds there. Joel Lynn Coffey, of this place, played with the visitors.

Mrs. H. Miles, 80 years of age, who fled from Rosedale, Miss., to Chicago to escape feared yellow fever, died at Chicago from exhaustion incident to the trip.

A second bankruptcy petition was filed in the Federal Court at Covington against the Hume Cooperage Company, of Richmond.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Central City is to have a $30,000 Methodist church.

Rev. J. G. Livingston closed a meeting Sunday night at Holdam's mill with 19 additions.

Bishop McCloskey has taken a firm stand against Sunday picnics, and in explanation just issued he says such an event is worse than the 10 plagues of Egypt. He issues strong instructions to Catholics regarding Sunday picnics, and denounces them.

The president preached a lay sermon to the Christian Brotherhood of Oyster Bay Sunday. His appearance was a surprise to most of the audience as he had stipulated that there should be no advance announcement of his acceptance of an invitation to address the brotherhood. He took the text for his discourse from the Scriptures, largely from Matthew, and his discourse was a disquisition on the substantial elements of a life of grace and Christian conduct.

FOR SALE!

Having sold my farm, I have for sale several head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, 100-150 lbs. young cows and calves, 11 good yearling heifers, 1 registered 3-year-old bull, 29 yearling steers; also 1 work mule; all mares 1 and 5 years old. J. S. GUNST, Stanford, Ky.

$50 REWARD.

I will give $50 reward for information leading to the recovery of a two-year-old dark sorrel gelding, 15 1/2 hands high, Roman nose, black mane and tail, which was stolen July 28th, and conviction of the thief, or will give a liberal reward for the return of the colt.
